The reception will be followed by a one-night only performance by Luis Alfaro (MacArthur “Genius” Fellow) presenting his latest solo play, ST. JUDE, about caring for his father following heart surgery and the ensuing lessons of health and healing.

DATE: Thursday, February 19, 2015

LOCATION: Barbara and Art Culver Center of the Arts 3824 Main Street Riverside, CA 92501

TIME: 5:30 pm – 6:45 pm (reception)
7:00 pm – 9:00 pm (performance)

RSVP: Cynthia Smith, Office of the Dean
College of Humanities, Arts & Social Sciences, UCR
Cynthia.Smith@ucr.edu
Please respond by February 11

---

Among Our Featured Guests:

Luis Alfaro, Citizen Artist, MacArthur Fellow & Professor of Playwriting, USC; Martha Gonzalez and Quetzal Flores of Quetzal, Grammy Award Winning Performers & Public Scholars

The 27th Annual Tomás Rivera Conference will take place on Friday, February 20, 2015, from 11 am – 5 pm, in the Highlander Union Building at the University of California, Riverside. For detailed information about the conference and related events, as well as a complete list of featured guests at the reception, see our webpage: tomasriveraconference.ucr.edu. You can also follow us on Twitter and Facebook.

The Tomás Rivera Conference is free and open to the public but requires confirmed registration the morning of the conference to reserve lunch and participation in Master Class Workshop (tickets given at on-site registration desk). Advance RSVP at tomasriveraconference.ucr.edu or in-person 10:30 am, Feb. 20 @ the Highlander Union Building (HUB) UC Riverside.